Tasting note : A little-known grape variety? A mysterious wine? Not anymore. Loin de l'Œil, an old grape variety from our region, will hold no more secrets for you. Carefully harvested and delicately vinified, it reveals itself in this wine that is both discreet and flavorful. It is a "semi-sweet" wine, which means that the yeasts have left a touch of residual sugar, giving it a smooth roundness that perfectly complements the natural liveliness of the grape variety. On the nose and on the palate, it offers surprising aromas of white peach, fresh almonds and marshmallow, making this wine a real treat. Pair it with goat cheese and fresh figs, or a plum tart generously topped with whipped cream, and this wine will give you a moment of pure pleasure.
